Faith, Hope, Charity. You wonder why, o'er life's rough sea,

ARDS printed in the highest style of the art.

My frail bark doth so gayly glide : I have three Angels by my side, Three Angels sail with me.

The first, she bids my soul be strong She points me to a cross-scarred form I hear nor heed life's wildest storm While listening to her song ;

the bids me, when the waters roll Heaven-high, to look aloft to Him Before whose brightness stars are dim, And trust to Him my soul.

The next, an anchor in her hand, When the heart faints amid the strife, And the black waves yawn for my life, Talks of the Summer-land ;

I see the glad port just ahead ; I wake as from a pleasant dream Beyond the whirl of waves I seem To clasp my kindred dead. The third, the loveliest of the three,

While shipwrecked barks float to and fro, flids me with open hand to throw My bread upon the sea : And then to hear sweet words of love.

To see the grateful tear-drops flow ,-Oh, this to me is heaven below. And will be heaven above.

And this is why, 'mid gloom and glee, My life-back doth so gayly glide,-God keep these Angels by my side, Till I have crossed the sex !

VARIETY.

Well-defined.-Dr. Johnson defines a ship as a prison, with a chance of being drowned. A New York furniture dealer advertises "elegantly embroidered kneeling benches for the GENERAL COMMISSION AGENTS.

HONOLULU. weary and heavy laden." A modern writer on social science divides the human race into three classes: Those who think it is so, those who think it isn't so, and those who don't care whether it is so or not. Good Advice.-Josh Billings says: " When you strike ile, stop boring; many a man has bored clean through and let all the ile run out at

DEATHS AND BIRTHS .- The average number of deaths per day among the known population of the globe is ninety thousand, or at the rate of sixty-two per minute. The average rate of births per day is seventy-five. PROVIDED .- The editor of a religious paper which had one month's precarious existence in Chicago, says that it is a good city for a religious paper, provided Satan has three pages of it and the other page mixed.

Two handsome young ladies having commenced practice as physicians in Blackhawk county, Illinois, it is stated that sickness has broken out among the young men of the place to an alarming extent.

chester, Iowa, are managed by ladies, and managed well, too. The name of the town should be changed to Womanchester, out of compliment to CAN BE ACCOMMODATED .- A charitable Cincinnati man keeps a pair of dogs chained to his front door, so that poor people who stop to get a "bite," can be accommodated without taking the trouble to go into the house.

According to Beecher "the cheapest thing on earth is a mean man. A faithful dog dies and is missed, a good and stately horse dies and he is missed, the emigration of the birds in autumn is a source of sadness to us, but mean men die and few tears fall."

Good Plan.-A Massachusetts editor is inclined to approve an English teacher's plan in examining schools to pass a newspaper about among the children, and require each to read from it and to explain the allusions to events, institutions

A California exchange says: " Portland (Oregon) has the politest man on record. While engaged in carrying wood into the cellar of a house the other day, he fell down and sprained his ankle. The lady of the house rushed to his assistance, and was received with: 'I beg your pardon, ma'am, for making so much noise.

Garibaldi is again out in eulogy of the Paris Commune and the International Society. He says: "If the devil were to found a society for the purpose of putting down sovereigns and priests I would proudly enroll myself in its ranks." The priests probably believe that Gari-baldi has already joined such a society.

Envious.-Out on the frontier, where hightoned journalism is yet in its infancy, editors make such remarks as these: "The editor of the Cawker Sentinal attempts to vindicate carpetbaggers. As he came to this country with his overalls tied up in a bandanna, he feels envious of those who possess a carryall with handle at-

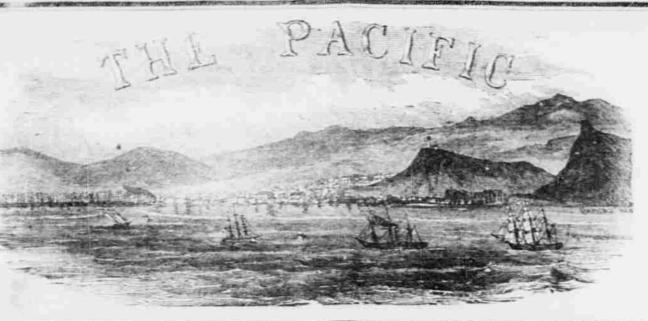

STARTLED. - The clerks at a watch and jewelry establishment were somewhat startled, the other day by an individual's inquiring if he "couldn't have his entrails engraved" on his watch case. After a little inward laughter, it was suggested that the applicant's initials might be put on in monogram, which he seemed to think was much Metallic Kerosene or Coal Oil the same thing.

Doubtful.-An Iowa preacher said in his sermon, the other Sunday: "Religion, in the heart, my friends, is like four aces in the deck; without it no man can hold a certain hand." It is doubtful whether the reverend gentleman's theology will be accepted by that class of poker players who hold that a "straight flush" beats four of a

"Hypothesis."-At a late examination of the | Thousands of Families now using this Lamp testify civil service candidates, a question was put to them as to the meaning of hypothesis. One candidate answered that it was a machine for raising water. Another said he did not remember of hearing the word before, but it sounded to him as though it meant the twist which the head of a department puts on his subordinates when he wants them to "come down" for election purposes.

A FRIENDLY PROPOSITION .- The owner of a new moustache was on the train down from Danbury recently. He gave up all his attention to his lip. First he would push the contents upwards, and then downwards. Again he would pull out the ends, and go through motions calculated to make it part in the middle. Finally, a bushy bearded man in a seat opposite leaned across the aisle, and observed in a friendly whisper, yet loud enough to heard through the car: "Don't you want to get one or two good hairs to breed from?"

"MIRACLES WILL NEVER CEASE."-During a San Francisco. Also, at the State Industrial Fair at Sacrameeting of the Concord Baptist Association, at Owenton, Kentucky, recently, a certain preacher | Manufactured from all kinds of Wood suitable for delivered a sermon that deeply touched a good old Democrat in the audience—and an Owen county Democrat, be it known, is of the purest breed. On being told that the preacher had once been a "Yankee" general, he seemed wonder-struck. At the close of the sermon he approached the preacher and taking him by the hand, said: "They tell me you were a 'Yankee' general in the Federal Army?" "Yes," was the reply, "and I tried to do my duty." "A Yankee! and converted!" "Yes." "And a preacher of the gospel?" "Yes." "Well, well," said he, "miracles will never cease."—Macon, G., Tele-
